[REDACTED] made reference to PROCIB-D-50, 9 October 1961, which was the report of Chicom receipts as of that date. By way of comparison the following receipts were reported:

Although the export ban is still in effect, extensive efforts to use all sources are getting better results. The following have been the productive posts: [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

[REDACTED] Materials received have been provided ACSI, NSA, AIR/FTD, in addition to CIA. In response to a query as to whether it would be possible at some future date to downgrade Chicom publications received from sensitive sources, the security restrictions were again emphasized: where the post classifies the material being dispatched because of sensitive sources, we must rigidly enforce the restrictions. [REDACTED] mentioned that U.S. scientific societies are receiving good material on exchange from Communist China, so prospects seem to be somewhat more hopeful for the future. [REDACTED] 25X1X6

[REDACTED] PROCIB-D-55 of 22 January 1962 is being distributed herewith.
